

Membership includes:

- Reduced registration rate at annual Professional Development Conference
- Quarterly newsletter, "Science Quarterly"
- Opportunity to have a voice for science education in Tennessee
- Professional affiliation with the largest science teachers organization in Tennessee

Payment Just fill out the form

Make checks payable to TSTA and mail form or copy of form with payment to:

Dr. Barry Farris, TSTA Treasurer
 1888 Providence Court
 Columbia, TN 38401
 E-mail: farrisb@k12tn.net

Membership
First name	Last name
Home address
Home city/state/zip
Home phone	Home County
School	School County
School address
School city/state/zip	School Phone
Grades currently taught	Subjects taught
E-mail address
Preferred format for newsletter? <input type="checkbox"/> Mail <input type="checkbox"/> Email (PDF)
Dues <input type="checkbox"/> $20 one year	Category <input type="checkbox"/> I am a student/ preservice teacher
<input type="checkbox"/> $35 two years	<input type="checkbox"/> I am a teacher
<input type="checkbox"/> $50 three years	<input type="checkbox"/> I am a college or university educator
<input type="checkbox"/> $300 Lifetime	<input type="checkbox"/> I am an administrator
	<input type="checkbox"/> I am retired
	<input type="checkbox"/> Other

Why join TSTA?

Tennessee Science Teachers Association provides opportunities for professional growth and leadership.

BENEFITS

- Annual Professional Development Conference
- Quarterly newsletter, "Science Quarterly"
- Position papers for advocacy and learning
- Access to information about state and regional professional development opportunities
- Professional recognition
- Networking and being part of a professional community of science educators
- TSTA Board representation for your district

Tennessee Science Teachers Association
1888 Providence Court
Columbia, TN 38401

TSTA

TSTA

Become a Member

Join the largest science teacher organization in Tennessee